

We would like to invite students to join the course which is co-organised with Universitat Politècnica de València.

The course name	Developing professional communication skills around the UN's 17 Sustainability Goals in Polish-Spanish teams
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - developing intercultural skills with a special emphasis on cultural awareness, - improving communication skills in a professional environment (giving presentations, giving and receiving feedback, facilitating conversations, reporting), - working on a small project in a bilingual team, - practising English and Spanish in real-life as well as professional situations, - acquainting students with modern sustainability challenges, - familiarizing students with some elements of SCRUM - the agile methodology, - expanding professional English vocabulary, - understanding cultural similarities and differences between Poland and Spain
Time	Thursday, 16.15 – 17.45
Requirements	English: B2+/C1 Spanish: A2
Assessment Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - regular attendance – with 2 unexcused absences, - active class participation in online and on site classes, - completing the assigned tasks , - working with Spanish partners, - delivering the final project in a bilingual team in English with the basic elements in Spanish, - showing the progress on presentations Successful students will be awarded a certificate.
Teachers	from Foreign Language Centre, Warsaw University of Technology and Universitat Politècnica de València, Spain
How to apply	Please apply by filling in the following form: https://forms.office.com/e/zEZWrgSep deadline: 5th October 2023 In case of any questions please write to dorota.chrominska@pw.edu.pl