We would like to invite students to join the course which is co-organised with Universitat Politècnica de València.

The course name	Developing professional communication skills around the UN's 17 Sustainability Goals in Polish-Spanish teams
Objectives	<ul> <li>developing intercultural skills with a special emphasis on cultural awareness,</li> <li>improving communication skills in a professional environment (giving presentations, giving and receiving feedback, facilitating conversations, reporting),</li> <li>working on a small project in a bilingual team,</li> <li>practising English and Spanish in real-life as well as professional situations,</li> <li>acquainting students with modern sustainability challenges,</li> <li>familiarizing students with some elements of SCRUM - the agile methodology,</li> <li>expanding professional English vocabulary,</li> <li>understanding cultural similarities and differences between Poland and Spain</li> </ul>
Time	Thursday, 16.15 – 17.45
Requirements	English: B2+/C1 Spanish: A2
Assessment Criteria	<ul> <li>regular attendance – with 2 unexcused absences,</li> <li>active class participation in online and on site classes,</li> <li>completing the assigned tasks ,</li> <li>working with Spanish partners,</li> <li>delivering the final project in a bilingual team in English with the basic elements in Spanish,</li> <li>showing the progress on presentations</li> </ul> Successful students will be awarded a certificate.
Teachers	from Foreign Language Centre, Warsaw University of Technology and Universitat Politècnica de València, Spain
How to apply	Please apply by filling in the following form: https://forms.office.com/e/zEZTWrqSep deadline: 5th October 2023  In case of any questions please write to dorota.chrominska@pw.edu.pl